Building Overview

Overlooking the western side of the Parade, the Grand Central Shopping Centre is housed in the iconic General Post Office building, a historic landmark completed in 1940 on the site of the old Opera House. The building boasts striking architectural features, including intricate exterior carvings and a grand main hall adorned with six remarkable panels. These murals—created by renowned artists Sydney Carter and Pilkinton—depict the vibrant trade of Cape Town's early days, offering visitors a glimpse into the city's rich heritage.

Once the Grand Central postal hall, this space has transformed into a lively indoor bazaar, drawing shoppers to its dynamic retail atmosphere. "Take a moment to step inside and feel a different pulse of Cape Town. Admire the superb murals and experience a piece of the city's history."

Location/Position

Strategically situated at the intersection of Darling Street and Lower Plein Street, Grand Central Shopping Centre stands at the heart of Cape Town's bustling commuter hub. Its prime location ensures seamless access to key transport networks, sitting adjacent to the Cape Town Train Station and Bus Depot.

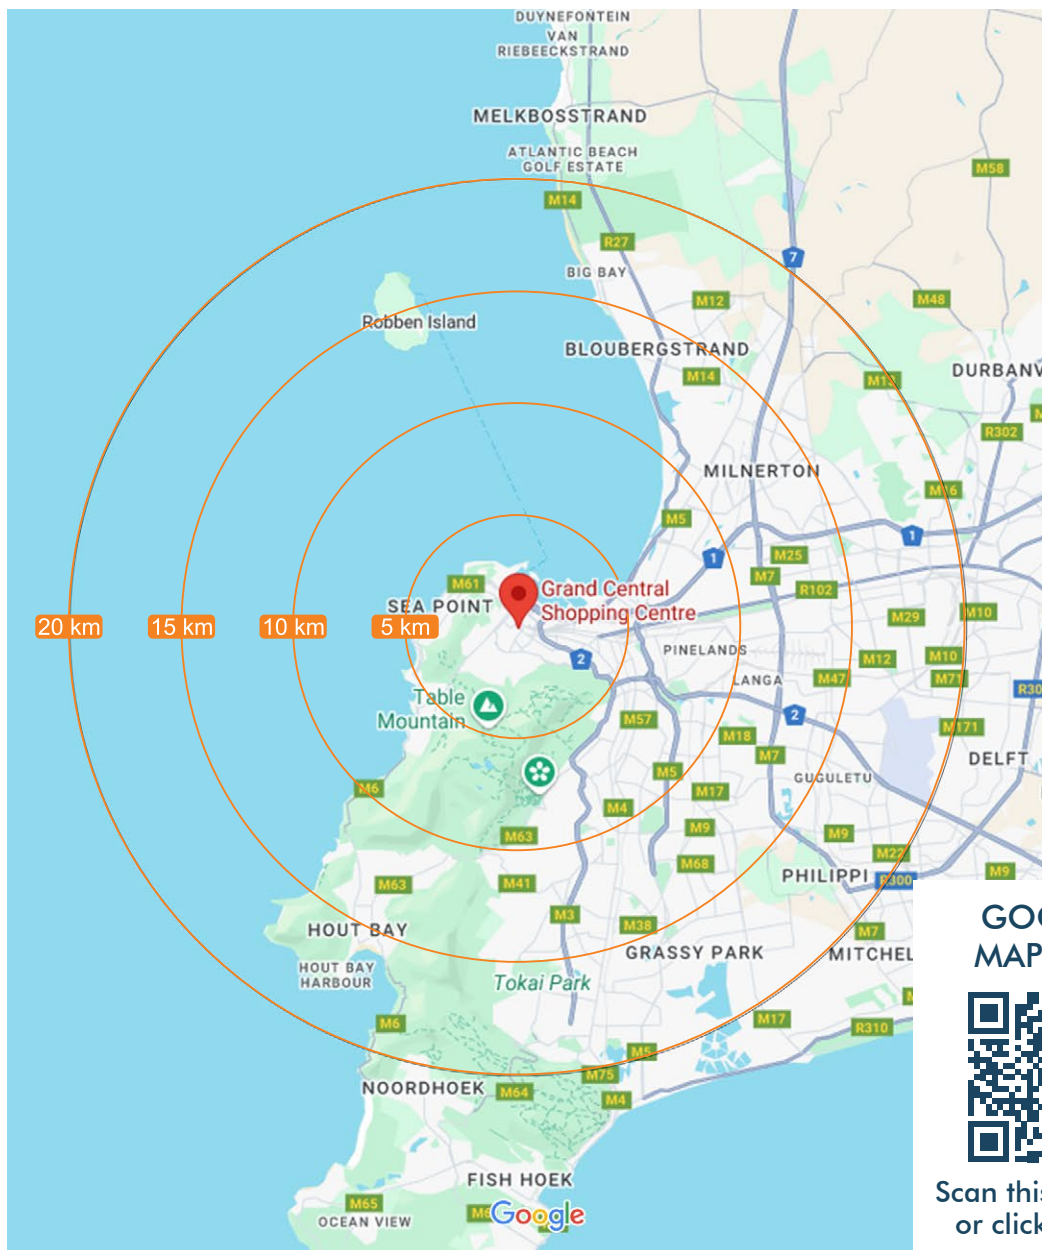

Spanning 13,000 m², the Centre hosts a diverse mix of national and specialty retailers, food outlets, and office space, catering to a wide range of needs. Surrounded by premier city amenities, Grand Central Shopping Centre provides a convenient, dynamic, and accessible environment for businesses and shoppers alike.
